SCHOOLS WISHING TO APPLY FOR ISGA VERY SMALL SCHOOLS STATUS

FOR GIRLS COMPETITIONS
SPECIAL PROVISION FOR VERY SMALL SCHOOLS

For these purposes a Very Small School is one which has:

1) If entering an U13 competition: a maximum of 10 girls in years 8, and 10 girls in year 7, and 10 girls in year 6, and 10 girls in year 5, and 10 girls in year 4.
2) If entering an U11 competition: a maximum of 10 girls in year 6, and 10 girls in year 5, and 10 girls in year 4.
3) If entering an U10 competition: a maximum of 10 girls in year 5 and 10 girls in year 4.
4) There is no lower age limit for the U9s.

The number of girls to be determined according to the school's roll on 1st September that academic year. The exemption for such schools is that they may include up to 5 underage girls in the under 13 and the under 11 and under 10 competitions. A pupil may not compete in more than one team at an I.S.G.A. Championships, ie in a three day, or two day, or one day event.

To apply to receive VERY SMALL SCHOOL status for the current season, schools must return the application form to the Chairman who will reply to the application. Applications will only be considered if the form is signed by the Headteacher. Further queries: please contact the Chairman Mrs Marion Charafeddine, email: chairman@isgagymnastics.org
