

ISGA Senior Researcher Quiz No. 1

Test your gym brain and find out more about ISGA!

I hope that this will take your mind off things for a short time during our lockdown

The answers are all found on the ISGA website, sometimes in more than one place. None are to be found in the Member's section which needs a password. You may know the answers without looking, in which case see how many you have got correct by answers by checking them on the website.

Download this page, print it off and write your answers in the spaces. Then check against the answers on the Chairman's Corner page which will be published by – Sunday 14 February 2021.
